"UN chief warns of ‘four horsemen’ global threats"

“Devastating conflicts continue to cause widespread misery. Terrorist attacks take a merciless toll. The nuclear menace is growing. More people have been forced from their homes by war and persecution than at any time since the Second World War.”

~ U.N. Secretary-General Antonio Guterres

- Geopolitical Tensions
- Climate change
- Mistrust between countries
- Sinister technologies

Is there room for cooperation between major powers like USA and Russia on the Arabic Peninsula, Eastern Europe & Africa? Can trust be restored between both countries?

TUESDAY, February 18
10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Location (tba)

National Research Nuclear University (Moscow)
&
Faculty of Global Studies, Lomonosov Moscow State University
&
The Catholic University of America

Reserve a Seat!

For information and accommodations, contact:
cua-iprstaff@cua.edu
Organized by Prof. Herbert Reginbogin & Prof. Marshall Breger of IPR